I drove back down to the USA through Maine, and stopped at Acadia National Park. It was my 3rd time there; it is a giant, lovely Park. I stopped for lunch at the famous #1 Tripadvisor Restaurant The Travelin' Lobster, and waited in line about an hour to get their best hot Lobster Roll ever. Delicious!

Drove up to the top of Cadillac Mountain for the view, then back down through Maine to Brunswick where I stayed in a nice Motel.

I drove down through the Hudson Valley over the Beacon/Newburgh bridge, and down to Harrisburg, PA. About 2 miles before my Exit, there was a huge backup of traffic due to a bad traffic accident. It took me about 30 minutes to drive those last two miles. Finally got to my Red Roof Inn and stayed there for the night.

Drove to Lake Kerr, where my brother-in-law Ron Johnson & his wife Cindy were staying, and they put me up for two nights. They had close friends come and visit, so I got to meet them all and spend some relaxing time together. Ron took us out on the Pontoon boat, and the 2nd day on his own Fishing boat, where we caught two good sized catfish.

I drove back down home to Hilton Head Island, and it took about 5.5 hours. I had a wonderful visit with lots of wonderful friends and family. Nice trip all around! - Jim L.
