Wedding - Anyela's Vineyard, Skaneateles, NY

The BACKTALK Band

"We hired the Backtalk Band for our wedding in Skaneateles in the fall, and they were absolutely fantastic. They capped the whole day so well, and they truly made then night just perfect. Jim was an excellent MC -- he has a great voice, nice personality, and didn't talk too much (like a lot of other DJs or MCs do) but created a very warm, fun atmosphere. The band sounded great and the dance floor always had lots of people on it. They play older music, but the good thing is that older people feel more comfortable dancing to it and the younger people will dance to everything, and young or old, you already know the songs. Their guitarist Bob Keefe also played dinner music. At one point one of our guests turned to us and we realized - wait, this isn't pre-recorded music? They also learned several new songs for our first dance, father/daughter dance, and were very accommodating--even allowing the groom to sing a song to the bride :) . After how fantastic they were at our Reception, we were very glad we chose them over all the DJs and bands we looked at and spoke with. Thanks again for everything!"
